1. LIBRARY POLICY & PROCEDURES:

The Fourth Industrial Revolution is the current and developing environment in which disruptive technologies and trends such as the Internet of Things (IoT), robotics, virtual reality (VR) and artificial intelligence (AI) are changing the way libraries work. The institution has taken cognizance of the important role of technology in libraries and has enhanced the libraries to cater for advancing technology and research in all its campuses.

The library is equipped with the following:

- E-Library Resources such as electronic newspapers, magazines, case studies, books and journals
- Increased Library holdings (literature, prescribed textbooks, generic academic textbooks, etc.)
- Increased DVD collections
- Enhanced Library IT Infrastructure (Tablet charging points, Wi-Fi, Internet facilities-free of charge, DSTV)

The campus library consists not only of prescribed textbooks but also books of many categories such as fiction, non-fiction, reference materials and training collections. Books are classified accordingly to DDC-Dewey Decimal Classification and shelved accordingly. Prescribed textbooks are updated to the latest editions and purchased annually.

The library's collection of text books, journals, periodicals and electronic student material is sufficient to meet the needs of all accredited programmes which the Institute offers. Furthermore, the Tablet PCs are continuously updated with student materials so that students have access to the latest information. Hence, both full-time students and distance students have adequate library support and access to library facilities. At AAA School of Advertising, we have adapted digital technologies and have provided leadership and training to help remake the library as a fundamental academic hub to facilitate teaching for learning.

The institution has taken cognizance of the important role of technology in libraries and has redesigned libraries to cater for advancing technology and research in all its campuses.

Although information is loaded onto the learner's Tablet PCs, and while the learners are encouraged to purchase their own prescribed textbooks, the campus libraries are more than adequately stocked with prescribed textbooks, reference books as well as relevant subject matter textbooks relating to Business Management and Information Technology. Learners are at liberty to borrow the books; however, reference material is only for specific use during Library hours. To further enhance research and facilitate the learners' learning, the Institution equips the campus library with current Journals in both Business Management and Information Technology as well as provides free access to both Wi-Fi and Internet connections. These facilities are offered free of charge.

The libraries are committed to practices that are environmentally sustainable and that utilize their limited financial, physical and personnel resources in scalable and sustainable ways to achieve their goals. The digital production and management of information is central to the redefinition of the institution's libraries. Through digitization and the development of new tools and systems for information discovery, management and analysis, our libraries are poised to play a pivotal role in the production of knowledge and disseminators of knowledge.

The implementation of our enhanced LMS (moodle) has expanded the flexibility of the learning environment, because students have adequate library support and adequate access to library research and computing facilities on-and off-campus. Students can study anywhere, anytime and can also build capacities for information literacy that support lifelong learning and creativity.

1.1. LIBRARY FACILITIES

The Library hours are Monday- Fridays: 08h00-16h30 and on Saturdays: 08h00-13h00. The library facilities are available to all registered students of the institution. In order to borrow any resources from the library, the student must be registered at the campus and have a student card.

- You must produce your student card when loaning out books.
- Membership of the library begins when learners register for the current academic year and it is cancelled directly after the 2nd semester examinations.
- Membership is extended until after the supplementary examinations to students who qualify for supplementary examinations.
- All students must round off their work 15 minutes before closing time.
- Computers: A limited number of computers are available to users. Computer users are therefore requested to ensure that a booking is made in advance, as the computers are often fully booked.
- Layout of the library. All non-fiction books are arranged according to the Dewey- Classification system. The Dewey numbers are marked on the spine of the books. A marker at the left side of the shelf indicates the range of Dewey numbers of books on a particular shelf.
- All fiction titles are arranged by author surname.
- The library has a room for viewing videos and separate rooms for group discussions.
- The library also consists of the following:
  - Various periodicals and journals
  - Reference Materials
  - Prescribed Textbooks
  - Guides, past exam papers and photocopied information
  - DVD's, CDs and videos

1.2 LIBRARY RULES

- Learners must produce their student card at the circulation desk when borrowing items from the library or when requested to do so by the library staff or security. No item can be borrowed without proper identification.
- Lending your student card to a friend is a serious offence and as such, the student's card will be confiscated.
- If your card is lost, please notify the librarian and the campus administrator.
- Borrowers will be held responsible for any damage, loss of item etc. to resources on loan from the library.
- All bags, satchels, etc. must be left in the demarcated area in the library.
- You are not allowed to remove any item from the library without it being issued to you.
- Loaning of a prescribed textbook is strictly monitored due to the limited quantities purchased.
- You are allowed to use a book over a 2 day period.
- The booking schedule must be filled in when you wish to use the computer.
- Learners using the discussion rooms and the TV room must adhere to the rules pertaining to its usage.
- You are requested to please protect the library books from the sun or water and when in use.
- Do not underline and mark or fold pages of a book.
- All group discussions should ONLY take place in the discussion rooms and not in the main library reading area.
- Please replace books on the correct shelves after use or leave them on the main counter.

1.3 LIBRARY CONDUCT

In order to ensure orderly behaviour in the library and to create an atmosphere conducive to study, the following general rules of conduct should be observed. In the interest of all library users, these rules will be strictly enforced:

- Learners are expected to observe silence whilst in the library so as not to disturb fellow learners. Learners guilty of this offence will be asked to leave the library.
- Proper attire is required at all times.
- Bad and objectionable behaviour will not be tolerated and learners who are guilty of this offence may be suspended permanently from using the library facilities.
- Sitting or lying on the tables or floor is prohibited.
- Tables are not to be moved from their place without permission.
- No card games or any other games are to be played in the library.
- The use of the cell phone whilst in the library is prohibited.
- Under no circumstances can books or stationary be removed from the librarian's work area.
- Internet users must ensure that onlookers at their cubicle do not become noisy- in which case you will be asked to leave the library.
- The library is a NO SMOKING zone.
- Eating and drinking in the library is strictly forbidden.

1.4 BORROWING OF BOOKS/RESOURCES

You are allowed to borrow one book over a 2 day period.

- The staff will capture the details on the computer and stamp the book with the due date.
- All library items that are on loan must be shown to the security who will allow you to leave the library/premises.

1.5 RENEWALS

- To renew the item we require your learner registration number and the accession number of the item.
- Books borrowed can be renewed provided that the item is not overdue or has not been requested by another borrower.
- You can contact the nearest campus library as listed in the prospectus to make arrangements for the renewal of book or if you require a resource for study purposes.

1.6 PERIODICALS, NEWSPAPERS & JOURNALS

- PressReader offers unlimited digital access to over 4000 top newspapers and more than 3608 magazines. Choose from full-version, current-day content in 60+ languages from more than 100 countries.
- Students can enjoy reading the world's newspapers and magazines the way they want to receive them - in print, online, or on their mobile device, tablet or eReader - wherever they live, travel, work or play.
- Plus, download complete issues of thousands of top newspapers and magazines just as they appear in print.
- Students can take advantage of an incredible array of social sharing, commenting, and topic alert tools.
- PressReader enables you to download your favourite publication to your PC, Mac, mobile device, tablet or e-Reader, allowing you to read publications when you are without an Internet
- The newspapers and magazines are available electronically with PressReader. They can be downloaded and read anywhere anytime.
- Click on link:
<http://www.pressreader.com/>

- The IP Address Authentication Method provides access to staff and students when at campus only.
- PressReader can be accessed through the Learning Management System Moodle or the 14 Day Radiant access when not at campus.
- You can also access PressReader off campus using the 14 Day Radiant Access.
- This is simply an extension of the IP address authentication, meaning after they leave the “HotSpot”, they have 14 days of remote access; after 14 days, they need to return to the campus and re-connect to the network to extend for an additional 14 days.
- IMPORTANT: Please review the system requirements before downloading and installing PressReader. Download from App World. Students can download the PressReader App to get an endless stream of top news stories in a personalized home feed.

1.7 DVD’S, CD’S & VIDEOS

For a detailed list of DVD’s and CD’s please consult your campus librarian.

- The library consists of a collection of Dr Brian Jude DVDs.
- The normal borrowing procedure must be followed.
- The loan period is a maximum of 2 days.
- The library policy regarding overdue, lost and damaged items will also apply to the CDs and videos. Borrowers must ensure that the DVD’s, CD’s and videos are not scratched or damaged. Any faulty item must be reported to the librarian.

1.8 LOST OR DAMAGE ITEMS

- The borrower must notify the librarian immediately if the item is lost or damaged.
- Damages include marking, underlining, making notes and removing pages.
- If the item is damaged or lost, the borrower will be expected to either pay the replacement cost or to supply the library with a new copy.
- The borrower will not be allowed to borrow any library material until the outstanding matter has been concluded.
- The relevant Administrative departments will be notified of the defaulting student/staff concerning overdue and lost/damaged items

1.9 PHOTOCOPYING & PRINTING

The library has a photocopying and printing facility available to all learners. When requesting copies to be made, please adhere to the following:

- Do not mark the pages with a pen nor fold them.
- Write the page numbers of the book to be photocopied on a separate piece of paper.
- All copies made must be paid for. Photocopies are 50c a page and printing at R1.00 a page.
- Note that all material to be photocopied and printed is subject to copyright regulations.

1.10 INTERNET & WIFI POLICY

By using the Internet work-station, users MUST agree to the following guidelines:

- Learners and staff must use the booking system to book sessions for Internet usage.
- Internet facilities are for online research and computer practice only.
- Use of workstation is limited to 60 minutes. Multiple Bookings is not allowed. You may continue using the computer only if it is available.
- You are not allowed to download and transfer graphics to the desktop.
- You not permitted to access material that may be offensive to other users or to the library staff.
- Persons using this equipment agree not to make any changes to setup or configuration or the software or hardware or download any information.

- Users may not copy or distribute electronic materials without the explicit permission of the copyright holder.
- Any responsibility for any consequences of copyright infringement lies with the user, the library expressly disclaims any liability or responsibility resulting from such use.
- Misuse or abuse of this computer or Internet access will result in suspension of Internet access privileges and/or possible legal action.
- No eating or drinking is allowed in the internet workstation area.
- No games, checking personal e-mails and recreational surfing and downloading are strictly prohibited and forbidden. Contravening this rule constitutes misconduct and disciplinary action will be taken.
- Please keep the area free of litter.
- Unruly and disruptive behaviour that cause a disturbance to other users is not permitted.
- All users are requested to check that the computer is free of any offensive material prior to use.
- Please inform the library staff if the offending material is found

1.11 LIBRARY ORIENTATION & WORKSHOPS:

The Library provides users with education programmes and training workshops to assist users in using the library effectively. Library orientation programmes for new students and staff are scheduled at the beginning of each semester. Training workshops on using resources of different subject areas are held from time to time. The library will also coordinate with students to customize training programmes related to the needs of their courses.

Emerald Group Publishing and PressReader representatives conduct training with staff and students at campuses nationally on an annual basis. Online demonstrations are presented to students and staff on how to navigate and use the digital library databases for teaching, learning and research.

The library staff will provide the following support:

- Overview of the library, the library catalogue and other resources.
- Demonstration and hands on experience to finding a book from an assignment list of references.
- Information literacy -choosing the best resources for a particular topic.
- Basic research skills and how to use the Harvard Method for referencing.
- Importance of citation, journal reference and problems of copying and plagiarisms.
- Workshops on how to use the digital library database and internet and wi-fi facilities will also be conducted regularly.

1.12 LIBRARY COMPETITIONS & QUIZZES:

Emerald Group Publishing has partnered with the Institution to host the Emerald Student Quiz Competition. The competition is held on an annual basis. Students enter the Emerald quiz online and prizes are awarded to the first 3 winners. Prizes are sponsored by Emerald and presented to them at the Richfield Holdings (Pty) Ltd Annual Academic Library Conference.

2. DIGITAL LIBRARY

Products of digital resources have been purchased with the aim to create a modern, accomplished, user-friendly and simple to use digital library. In order to build a comprehensive digital library, enhancing quality service, and selecting digital library databases, the institution subscribes to a number of electronic journals (e-journals), electronic case studies (e-cases), electronic books (e-books), electronic magazines (e-magazines) and electronic newspapers (e-newspapers) from leading publishers such as Elsevier (ScienceDirect), Emerald Publishing, Springer Nature and PressReader.

An important advantage to digital conversion is increased accessibility to users. They also increase availability to individuals who may not be traditional patrons of a library, due to geographic location or organizational affiliation. No physical boundary. The digital library has many enhanced features that allow students of not only viewing the electronic resources online but they can also download, email and cite articles. The Digital Library is a multiuser platform and electronic resources can be downloaded immediately.

The abundance of information sources and the provision of internet and wi-fi, are the conditions for creating the library's educational environment and respectively its hybrid learning environment-physical and virtual.

The Digital library consists of the following databases:

2.1.1. Emerald Publishing E-Journal Premier Collection

Emerald is a global publisher providing the highest quality, peer-reviewed research. With over 50 years' experience, Emerald manages a portfolio of over 300 e-Journals.

The subscription ensures access to up-to-date, high quality content for users, researchers and practitioners, combining research rigour with practical relevance.

The Management e-Journals are considered essential content by 95 of the Financial Times Top 100 business schools, whilst the specialist e-Journals build on this strength; offering focused, international research in a range of fields.

e-Journal Premier is the most comprehensive, cross-disciplinary journal database, featuring the latest peer-reviewed, international research in both established and emerging areas of interest.

Designed as the most unified content offering, e-Journals Premier combines the Management Database and the Specialist Collections, providing the full breadth of Emerald's high quality publishing from leading researchers around the world.

Refer to Annexure A1 for Emerald e-Journals Premier Collection.

The institution has access to the e-Journals Premier Collection:

- Management e-Journals Database

As an established leader in management research, Emerald provides comprehensive coverage across all management disciplines with over 200 journals in this field.

- Specialist e-Journals Collections

The Specialist collection offers expertise in management to other important areas of study. This knowledge is built through strong support of their subject communities.

2.1.2. Emerald Emerging Markets Case Studies (E-Cases)

Emerging Markets Case Studies is a digital collection of peer-reviewed teaching case studies focusing on business decision making and management in global markets. Written by professionals working in or closely with global markets, Emerging Markets Case Studies can be used in the classroom to help develop skills in decision making, collaboration and problem solving. Emerald Emerging Markets Case Studies provides well-researched, instructive, and multimedia online cases about the most interesting organizations in complex emerging market contexts to faculty developing effective managers globally.

Case studies have been licensed from leading international business schools to complement Emerald’s existing case portfolio. Content from the Darden School of Business, University of Virginia, and the Kellogg School of Management, Northwestern University, spans the MBA curriculum from accounting to strategy, creating dynamic and effective opportunities for students to understand and apply business theory, analyse complex situations, and formulate solutions.

The e-Cases are developed from multiple sources, employing rigorous research methodology, including primary data sourced and signed-off by the organization involved. Quality cases developed from secondary sources are not excluded, but should make a significant contribution beyond the initial secondary sources.

The cases and teaching notes apply comprehensive and recent theoretical perspectives and empirical findings. The teaching notes detail appropriate learning activities. Teaching objectives and course topics cover one or more of the main Business and Management subject areas. The teaching notes include Multimedia such as YouTube interviews and background clips that contribute to student learning.

Springer Nature is a leading academic and educational publisher serving the needs of researchers, students, teachers and professionals around the world. It is Springer Nature’s mission to help the community to discover, learn and achieve more. Springer Nature serves this cause by making knowledge accessible across our three business areas of Research, Education and Professional.

Springer Nature advances discovery by publishing robust and insightful research, supporting the development of new areas of knowledge, responding to the needs of the research community and making ideas and information accessible around the world.

Their research publications include the respected Nature Research portfolio. Each year they handle more than 1 million article submissions and publish around 300,000 articles across almost 3,000 journals and 13,000 books. They are the largest open access research publisher and home to Scientific Reports, the world’s largest open access journal. Last year, their content platforms were visited almost 2 million times per day.

Students have access to Springer Nature e-books at campus through IP Address Authentication and through their Moodle Accounts using the campus WIFI. When not at campus, students can access the e-Book Collection through Moodle. Usage is unlimited with no Digital Rights Management and users can access content in PDF, HTML or ePub format on any device at any time.

Students and staff have access to the following 2018 e-Book Collections:

2.4.1. Business and Management 2018 e-Book Collection (464 Titles):

This collection presents the most current research across all sub-disciplines in business and management—whether it's how scientific research on mindfulness can improve productivity in the workplace or the latest guidance on maximizing supply chain efficiency, we have it covered.

Titles extend across topics and audiences within the field of business studies, from deep quantitative research for specialists to accessible studies on issues businesses face today. Books presents research from thought leaders at the world's top business schools, management firms and academic institutions.

The collection includes leading Professional books, which integrate academic intelligence and practical experience to support managers and consultants with practitioner- oriented work and prepare students for their careers in business. The collection consists of textbooks, monographs to handbooks and reference works.

3. Open Access Digital Repositories promoted by AAA SCHOOL OF ADVERTISING to enhance research, teaching and learning

3.1. African Digital Library

The African Digital Library (ADL) is a collection of electronic books (eBooks) that can be accessed and used free-of-charge by any person living on the African continent. Individuals can access the library from any PC that is connected to the Internet in Africa.

The objective of the ADL is to develop a digital library that is available free-of-charge, to residents and institutions of Africa, for academic and business use.

The ADL project aims to facilitate access to library resources without the expense of developing and maintaining a physical infrastructure, by establishing a public digital library for people living and learning on the African continent. The library comprises a collection of books and other resources, in digital format, that are accessible through the Internet.

The ADL was established in November 1999 in collaboration with NetLibrary. NetLibrary was acquired by Ebsco from OCLC in March 2010. Ebsco was fortunate to also obtain a fully formed ebook platform that already had a large collection of about 200, 000 ebooks from 500 publishers available in 17, 000 sites worldwide.

The African Digital Library's collections are now accessible via the EBSCO platforms.

The primary aim of the ADL is to provide access to its collections consisting of:

The African Digital Library collection (9808 titles)

Audio books (4 titles)

A publicly accessible collection (3487 titles)

The Collection includes books on a wide variety of subjects ranging from arts; crafts and astronomy, to mathematics, technology and engineering, medicine, health & education.

4. PRESCRIBED TEXTBOOKS/BOOK COLLECTIONS/DVD'S

The campus library is influenced by the content of the programmes, to support the curriculum and to support the research of the institution faculty and students. The support of teaching and learning materials are identified by the librarian to promote the needs of the faculty and student body as well as the mission and academic programs of the college.

4.1. PRESCRIBED TEXTBOOKS/BOOK COLLECTION:

The library consists not only of prescribed textbooks but also books of many categories such as fiction, non-fiction, reference materials, study guides and training collections. Books are classified accordingly to DDC-Dewey Decimal Classification and shelved accordingly. Prescribed textbooks are updated to the latest editions and purchased annually. They are distributed to campus libraries nationally.

4.2. DVD COLLECTIONS

The Institution has acquired various CD and DVD collections for use as teaching aids. The DVD'S are intended to develop and support programmes for life skills and team building programmes. These are available at campus libraries.

- Brian Jude DVD's: Dr Brian Jude is considered to be one of South Africa's leading experts on the subjects of Communication, Body Language and Interpersonal Skills. He has produced and directed 64 best-selling training videos. Refer to Annexure E for Dr Brian Jude DVD collection.

5. LIBRARY IT INFRASTRUCTURE

The abundance of information sources and the provision of internet and wi-fi, are the conditions for creating the library's educational environment and respectively its hybrid learning environment-physical and virtual.

5.1. Library Management System Integrated Campus Administrative System -ICAS

The Institution uses the Integrated Campus Administrative System (ICAS) as the Electronic Library Management System as a sub-system of ICAS and the Digital Library to speed up library resources management. Electronic resources such as electronic books, electronic journals, electronic case studies, electronic newspapers and electronic magazines can be downloaded onto a student's Tablet PC and can be read anywhere anytime.

Designed in conjunction with industry experts ICAS: Integrated Campus Administrative System from Strive Software, optimises workflow and co-operation between administration, academic, finance, library and sales functions, with one reliable and easy-to-use solution.

The library management system-ICAS-Library Module encompasses all the main operations of the libraries: acquisition, cataloguing, circulation, in-house borrowing, reporting and inventory of book collections.

Library resources in the form of hard copy textbooks are loaned out and in through the ICAS system. New library acquisitions are captured on ICAS and accession numbers are provided from ICAS.

5.1.1. Navigating ICAS-Library Module:

- Logging in: library staff are provided with their own unique login credentials to log onto ICAS.
- Using ICAS: once logged in, one selects Modules, Library Module.
- Library Module: provides access to loan in and loan out books, capture new materials onto database and also to generate reports.
- Loaning In/Out Books: Students need to present their student card as proof of identification in order to loan out a book. They are allowed to use the book for 2 days. Staff need to be on ICAS and have an ICAS number allocated to them. They are allowed to use a book for 2 weeks.
- Media In/Out: Select the blue icon- Media In/Out on the left of the page of the library module. This allows one to loan in and loan out campus library materials.
- Checking Out: Enter student number and check the name on ICAS is the same as on the student card. Enter the accession number- LA number eg. LA/19964/. Once entered, a green tick will indicate that the book has been loaned out successfully. A red tick will indicate that the book hasn't been loaned out.
- Checking In: The accession number is entered, which is the LA number of the book, then click on Check In and then a green tick will indicate that the book has been checked in.

5.2. Computers/Printers/Copiers/TV

- A computer research lab with internet access will enable students to conduct research and assignments. These machines do not require login and can access all electronic resources. They also have the Microsoft Office suite and Web browsers.
- Mobile printing can also be accessed via email or with flash drive and is fee-based.

- Photocopying is also available and is fee-based.
- Students are also encouraged to view educational channels on DSTV.

5.3. Internet and Free Wifi

- These technologies can be accessed nationally at all libraries.

6.2. Institutional membership with NLSA

An agreement has been formed between AAA School of Advertising and the National Library of South Africa (NLSA). Contact has been established with Ms Baker of the NLSA library to grant AAA School of Advertising an institutional membership. The NLSA is open to the public and anybody can make use of their services, the only prerequisite for entering is that one needs to produce a student card or an identity document.

The NLSA Pretoria Campus administers the Southern African Interlending Scheme (SAIS) and acts as mediator in Interlending differences. Member cooperation is fundamental for successful completion of Interlending requests. Registered members of the Scheme undertake to comply with the rules.

Membership of the SAIS entitles you to be able to request and supply library materials (photocopies and loans) to and from other SAIS members. However you will still be liable for paying for the items you request based on the approved standard national interlending tariffs.

7. ACADEMIC PUBLISHER COLLABORATIONS

Major academic publishers such as Cengage, Wiley, Mcgraw-Hill, Pearson ,Juta, Oxford and Lexis Nexis provide academic support to the institution in terms of inspection copies, lecturers resources and student resources. The main aim is to equip the institution with up- to- date and fit for purpose content. Prescribed textbooks are updated and new releases are sent electronically through VitalSource for academics to review.

As the provider of student textbooks book publishers also assist lecturers with additional resource material and provide students with an online learning platform which helps with informal assessments.

Emerald has been part of the Annual Academic Library Conference for the past 7 years. Their training at the conference of academic and library staff promotes awareness and how to access and use the Emerald database for teaching, learning and research.

Emerald brings research to life and bridges research, education and professional learning and development. Emerald Publishing disseminates rigorous research in specialist fields enabling these disciplines to have further practical value.

The emerging markets case studies consists of videos, case shorts and an improved library of teaching notes to help educators deliver an enhanced student experience.

Research Media will provide creative services that nurture and showcase the work of authors to ensure broader impact and outreach. GoodPractice will bring further expertise in the impact of research on corporate learning and development and so help to nurture fresh thinking in the managers of tomorrow.

Emerald seeks to build and deliver content and experiences which help educators teach and students learn. Emerald which grew out of the University of Bradford Management School it rapidly became a global company building close relationships with governments, institutions and authors around the world. This global outlook continues to inform Emerald's future efforts.

Emerald Publishing collaborated with the institution to provide a Student Quiz competition. This is to create awareness and usage growth for Emerald resources. The quiz is national and open to all the Richfield Libraries. Only students are allowed to enter the quiz. It is compulsory for every campus to participate. An award will be given to the campus with the highest number of entries. Emerald will be giving prizes to the top 3 winners.

8. CONFERENCES/WORKSHOPS

8.1. Richfield Holdings (Pty) Ltd Annual Academic Library Conference

The conference is held to create an opportunity for academic book publishers, academics and librarians to engage on significant issues in support of quality library, information services & librarianship nationally. Library enhancement for research, innovation & technology management is necessary to create high performance libraries. The library is the heart of the institution and academic book publishers showcase their resources to enhance libraries at the institution and how to incorporate the 4th Industrial Revolution that consists of such as the Internet of Things (IoT), robotics, virtual reality (VR) and artificial intelligence (AI).

The conference goal is to build and further a vibrant library community by bringing together academic publishers, librarians and academics. The conference provides a mix of invited speakers and training workshops that stimulate discussion and provide workable ideas for effective, practical and sustainable library environment.

PressReader, Emerald and Springer representatives train librarians on how to use their databases by using live demos and presentations. The conference includes discussions and presentations to engage participants.

This conference builds on the success of the first 6 conferences held in Johannesburg at the Villa Toscana Hotel (2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017) and the 7 Wolff Street Campus Hall (2018).

9. THE A-Z OF CUSTOMER SERVICE EXCELLENCE by Dr. Oyewole O. Sarumi

- A is for Acknowledging customers be that in person, over the telephone, or by written communication (email , letter etc ...)
- B is for Best Value (obviously!).
- C is for Complaints, your most useful form of feedback.
- D is for Dedicated staff working within a culture of customer service excellence.
- E is for Empowerment, equipping your staff with the means and freedom to deliver excellent levels of customer service.
- F is for Flexibility. The rigid application of policy in all cases without exception will inhibit your ability to deliver customer service excellence.
- G is for Going the extra mile. Now a cliché but still worthy of inclusion - amaze your customers by delivering that little bit more than they expect.
- H is for Human. Customers like to deal with humans, not organisations and certainly not machines.
- I is for Interaction with customers. If customer interactions are positively dealt with you are well on the way to achieving excellent levels of customer service.
- J is for Joined-up thinking, or partnership working through which knowledge and experiences are pooled in order to achieve greater efficiency and higher levels of customer service excellence.
- K is for Knowledge. The more you know about your customers the better you will be able to serve them.

- L is for Listening. Truly excellent service providers do not talk, they listen.
- M is for Managing expectations. Wherever possible, underpromise and overdeliver .
- N is for Nurturing the culture of customer service excellence within your organisation.
- O is for Ownership. Throughout the entire organisation all employees should own and feel responsible for the delivery of the customer service excellence programme.
- P is for Processes, having effective processes in place to facilitate excellent customer service delivery.
- Q is for Quality service provision.
- R is for Recovery. When something goes wrong take action immediately to keep control of the situation and find a solution which is acceptable to all.
- S is for Satisfaction. Test the effectiveness of customer service strategies by measuring customer satisfaction.
- T is for Trust, keep your organisation's promises.
- U is for Understanding the contributing factors to customer service excellence.
- V is for Visibility. Customer service standards and details of current performance in achieving those standards should be made available to all employees and customers.
- W is for Word of mouth. Impress your customers and it will work to your advantage. Upset your customers and it will damage your reputation (one unhappy customer will tell nine others (TARP).
- X is for eXceptional service. Surprise your customers with the level of service you offer them.
- Y is for Year in, Year out because your customer service strategy should be constantly revisited to ensure that standards and processes remain relevant and current.
- Z is for being Zealous in your pursuit of Customer Service Excellence

10. HARVARD REFERENCING METHOD

10.1. INTRODUCTION

In any academic writing, referencing is used to inform the reader of the various sources of idea/s, opinion/s or information that was used to prepare the document. It is therefore an essential criteria for all successful academic writing. Referencing is also very necessary to avoid plagiarism, to verify quotations and to enable readers to follow-up on cited author's arguments. While referencing is essential to all academic writing, it is also true that many learners find it very problematic.

Hence, it is envisaged that this guide will assist learners to:

- Understand the need for, and how to use, reference systems (specifically the HARVARD SYSTEM).
- Indicate other writers' ideas in one's own work using a specific citation style.
- Format appropriate references correctly from citations/quotations.
- Reference a range of common and less common bibliographic and electronically accessed material.

10.2. REFERENCING FORMAT

How is Referencing Done?

Various institutions and publications have different ways of citing references. AAA School of Advertising adopts the Harvard Method of referencing. The advantages of this style are:

- It ensures one alphabetical list of all references in the text, facilitating easy identification of sources.
- Last minute additions and deletions can be made without having to re-number all references.
- Only one entry is necessary in the list even though the work may have been referred to more than once.

There are two parts to the Harvard System, one relates to in-text referencing and the other to the reference list/bibliography that appears at the end of the text.

10.3. IN-TEXT REFERENCING

Note:

Generally in-text referencing follows two major patterns which are used irrespective of the source of the information:

- (Surname, year: page number) In this format, the surname is written, followed by year of publication and thereafter the page number. All information is carefully punctuated and enclosed in a bracket after a statement or idea gleaned from a particular text eg:

Branding plays an important part during any marketing campaign (Kotler, 2013: 70).

- Surname (Year: Page number) In this format, the writer generally prefixes the author's name. This is followed by the year and page number enclosed in a bracket e.g.:

According to Kotler (2013: 90) branding plays an important part during any marketing campaign.

General in-text referencing rules:

- Use the surnames of authors only.
- Avoid initials, titles and first names [Use these only in the bibliography/reference list]
- Always provide full pagination details i.e. year of publication and page number.
- For multiple authors use et al. only after first citation of all authors.
- Note the punctuation of et al. inside brackets and outside brackets e.g.

1. First citation: Maharaj, Madibe and Hlophe (2010 :78) believe that..... (note all surnames of all authors are cited)
2. Second citation: Maharaj et al. (2010 :78) believe that..... Note full stop after al. outside bracket and compare with (Maharaj et al., 2010:78) al. is followed by a full stop and a comma inside brackets.

In-text referencing from the WWW and Online Sources:

Some articles are published in print only, some in print and online, some online and the www only. _In all instances it is imperative to provide the following details:

- The author’s surname
- Year of publication
- Page number

In cases where there is missing information, use the following:

Information	In-text procedure
• No author	• Use Anonymous
• No page numbers	• Download, number pages and cite as per page details
• No year	• Use year accessed

11. CONCLUSION

Students will be more engaged with learning if they engage with library resources on campus or online, interact with library staff and spend time using libraries. Libraries can engage with learning in many ways.

The physical space itself can be utilized to ensure that there are sufficient resources available to students, enough study areas, collaborative learning spaces and sufficient numbers of computers and Wi-Fi access connectivity. Libraries also exist in the virtual world, allowing distributed learning to occur and allowing access to contact and distance learners. Librarians also contribute to student engagement by providing expertise to students through formal workshops, tutorials and by providing guidance with guest speakers etc.

Librarians help students learn the best ways to access and use quality information and resources, help them to enhance their study and research skills and explain how to use the latest technologies to enhance their learning.

Working collaboratively, we can begin the reboot and make sure the college we create is the one shaped by our vision of academic success for our students and faculty. While it's important for libraries to stay ahead and provide students with access to the latest online resources and technologies, research shows it's also about being able to provide a delicate balance of 'blended learning'-study that takes place in both the virtual and physical space. We strive to ensure that our students benefit from this blended approach and that academics and students will need both the virtual and physical library for years to come.
